BREAKOUT SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

Analyzing Your Year Over Year Enrollment Funnel

Jonathan Babbitt, Amy Alexander (Trinity Western University)

Trinity Western University will discuss how they customized Salesforce in order to show year-over-year funnel reports based on any point in time, allowing them to analyze their admissions funnel performance.

Creating a Center of Excellence - Continued CRM Success

Wendy Hamstra-Smith (Enrollment Rx) | Emily Anstoetter (Saint Louis University)

Join the Saint Louis University team to talk about life post-implementation so that you can continue your CRM success. Learn how to empower your users to have ownership of the data while establishing best practices for system growth. Ideas such as utilization of regular trainings, "super-user" groups, tiered support levels and much more will be discussed.

Events Rx Client Panel

Amy Alexander (Trinity Western University) | Cody Kaemingk (Dordt College)

Event management is a crucial component of the recruitment and admissions experience for prospective students. Join us to hear from other institutions that are using Events Rx to manage everything from open houses and info sessions to campus visits and itineraries.

Experiences and Successes with Einstein Analytics

Carol Thomas (New England College)

E=mC 2. New England College has successfully harnessed the power of Einstein Analytics and Discovery to analyze the enrollment funnel, adapt and change strategies during the admissions cycle, and develop predictive and forecasting models. The presentation will include an overview of management and analytic strategies, the specific challenges NEC is addressing, and their overall results.

FormBuilder Rx Client Panel

Jonathan Babbitt (Trinity Western University) | Maulik Maniar (University of Nevada, LV)

FormBuilder Rx has been a transformative product for higher education clients, as it allows for the rapid implementation and deployment of Salesforce Communities and Sites in record speed, with "clicks-not-code". Join us as a panel of clients talk about how they are using FormBuilder Rx to easily configure dynamic and personalized online forms and portals for constituent engagement.

Headache to HEDA

Eric Kenney (College of Nursing, University of Utah)

University of Utah's College of Nursing implemented Salesforce in 2015 without a proper implementation strategy. It was a perfect storm for the perfect headache. After meeting with Enrollment Rx in 2016, a plan was set in place to execute a HEDA conversion and to build out a new application. Join them to learn about the helpful tips and tricks Enrollment Rx provided them so they could convert their org to HEDA in about three weeks.

Incorporating Current Students into the Grad Rebel Gateway

Janine Barrett (University of Nevada, LV)

University of Nevada, Las Vegas launched their applicant portal, the Grad Rebel Gateway, in 2015. Used for recruitment and admissions, their prospective students could submit applications, review checklist items, and monitor their application status. UNLV launched Phase 2 in 2019, and current student data was added to the system, giving students their own portal, specialized communications, and electronic forms, adding to the student lifecycle. They will discuss their experiences with launching Phase 2, as well as challenges and the outcomes.

Integration Rx/Import Rx Client Panel

Jennifer O'Brien-Knotts (Lehigh University) | Roxi Shupp (Cedar Crest College) | Payam Ezatpoor (University of Nevada, LV)

Please join us as we present a panel of clients that are leveraging Integration Rx and Import Rx to support the bidirectional integration of Salesforce and their Student Information System. We will discuss their evaluation, implementation, and on-going support of their integration strategy at their institution.

Managing Data Quality

Barb Smith, Jim Scott, Lawrence Levy (Enrollment Rx)

When it comes to duplicate records, unfortunately there is no silver bullet that is 100% effective. Join us to examine the sources of potential duplicates and discuss best practices to eliminate this scourge from our CRM world.

Moving from Slate to SFDO

Carol Thomas (New England College)

Yes, they did! Over the past two years, New England College has systematically transitioned from Slate to SFDO/ERX to support graduate, online, and undergraduate recruitment, admissions, and enrollment. They will discuss how Salesforce, Enrollment Rx and Pardot have contributed to better pipeline management and how integration was a key component to the success of their implementation. They will also look at what's next as they consider the benefits of Salesforce as their enterprise marketing, communications, and services solution.

Product Road Map Deep Dive

Marc Satin, Jim Scott (Enrollment Rx)

From the (not so) secret labs of Enrollment Rx comes our regular product releases, upgrades, and enhancements. Join us as our team walks through a deep dive of the last 12 months of enhancements and describes the upcoming roadmap for the next year. We welcome attendees to participate in an exchange of product ideas, challenge our priorities, and influence our roadmap direction.

Reader Rx Client Panel

Daniel Gualotuna (Fielding Graduate University) | Jennifer O'Brien-Knotts (Lehigh University)

How are universities and colleges using Salesforce to manage multifaceted, decentralized admissions decisions? Hear from a panel of clients that are using Reader Rx to control evaluation criteria and admission process across multiple departments and programs at their institutions.
